B&B and Ysgubor Holiday Cottage

Special Offers

We promote various special offers via our website or Facebook page to guests who resist the marketing might of the international booking agencies and book directly with us

The national booking agencies 'Booking.com' 'Expedia' 'Cottages.com' 'Trivago' 'Hotels.com' 'Tripadvisor' etc' charge us a charge / commission –

On some sites, if you pay £550.00 for a week, then we would actually receive £409.00 of this – so please BOOK direct, it will be cheaper!!

If you choose not to stay with us, please book directly with the owner wherever you choose to stay as this means that more of your 'tourist' pounds stay in the local economy where you choose to visit

Any special offer is available to guests who direct directly with us, either on our website, by phone or email

Special offer can only be redeemed at the time of booking and not retrospectively

Only one offer can be used per booking

Special offers or promo codes can be removed at any time

Thank you, Lee and John Cox
